The People of Fredericksburg in Earnest-An Association Formed-Boston

Judge Hancock opened the fall term of the Circuit Court of Sussex county today. The case of young Marks, convicted for the killing of N. M. Baine, near Waverly, will come up on appeal from the lower court for a new trial. Friends of and counsel for the accused expect to get a new trial. In the event they do not, will carry the case to the Supreme Court of Appeals. If they do the probability is a change of venue to Southampton or some other county. Young Marks was some time ago moved from the jail in Sussex to the jail in Southampton, where it is said his health has greatly improved. If a new trial is granted bail will be asked for.

The political situation here and through-out this section is rapidly warming up to fever-heat. Both parties are working at their best. The Democrats particulary have within the past few days greatly per-fected their organization and are working with a vim that betokens a full vote and decisive gains.

It is pretty well understood that John M.
Langston, who is speaking for the Repub-can ticket in Ohio. will not come back to can ticket in Ohio. will not come back to Virginia to take any part in this campaign, and the negroes who are waiting to hear his advice are by no means enthusiastic for Mahone. On the contrary, they show a great lack of enthusiasm as compared with former campaigns.

Ex-Governor Cameron is mere decided than ever in his opinion that General Mahone will be beaten, and that by a very decisive majority. He thinks the result of the recent registration throughout this cisive majority. He thinks the result of the recent registration throughout this State proves this fact beyond all doubt.

In all the appeal cases from the registrars in this city heard yesterday and to-day by Judge Bernard, of the Hustings Court, decisions were rendered sustaining the registrars, except in one. The Republicans are fighting very hard, but appearances indicate that they are fighting against fate in Petersburg. They are not even disposed to take bets at odds.
Congressman Julius Cæsar Burrows, of

to take bets at odds.
Congressman Julius Cæsar Burrows, of Michgan, spoke at the Academy of Music last night. He avoids State issues as much as possible and discusses national questions altogether. He thinks this campaign, however, to be of such national importance as to justify the presence of himself and other northern Radical maligners of the South in the State.

kin, the Democratic candidate for the House of Delegates. The people of this county are thoroughly aroused and the party is organized better than it has been for years. I learn from Dr. J. F. Bryant, the chairman of the party, that the outlook is good for a handsome majority for the entire ticket in the county.

If we were to publish one twentieth of the letters we receive from grateful persons who have been benedied by it we could not find room in our catalogus. We learn through the NEWSPAPERS that numerous other Bromine Areane Springs have been unearthed, and they delight in making comparisons with the Thompson Spring.
